

Teach and Learn in Korea!

An incredible opportunity for a unique experience!
Volunteer to teach in rural Korea while learning about a different country, its culture, and its people.

Teach and Learn in Korea,

eligible native English-speaking undergraduate students and recent graduates the opportunity to teach English at rural elementary schools while learning about the different facets of Korean life and culture.

also known as the 'TaLK' program, is a Korean Government Scholarship Program. We invite talented,

Rural Placement

TaLK primarily focuses on improving the quality of English Education in the many beautiful areas of rural Korea.

Elementary School

TaLK Scholars teach young students at Elementary Schools, in a range of grade levels.

English Education

We invite responsible, enthusiastic native English-speaking to share with the underserved areas of Korea.

Living Support

Our scholars enjoy benefits such as a monthly stipend, intensive training, insurance, and accommodations.

Korean Life

While in Korea, our scholars have the opportunity to experience a different and unique way of life!

Korean Culture

The life of a people can be seen by their culture. Our scholars experience this through food, music, and more.

The TaLK Program is administered by the National Institute for International Education (NIIED), an executive government organization under the guidance of the Korean Ministry of Education (MOE).
